   i. Contract means the proposed form of agreement (included in the Tender Documents) between the Principal and the successful Tenderer;

   ii. Principal-Supplied Information means information (oral or otherwise) provided or made available at any time by or on behalf of the Principal to any Tenderer (other than documents stated in the Contract to comprise part of the Contract) and includes any information described as such in the Tender Documents;

   iii. Tender Documents means all those documents issued to the Tenderer as part of the tender process;

   iv. Tenderer includes any person who has lodged or at any time proposes to lodge a tender (conforming or otherwise) for the Supply (For the purposes of this tender the word contractor has been used instead of Tenderer); and

   v. Subject to the above paragraphs, terms which are defined in the Contract or other Tender Documents shall have the same meanings for the purposes of these Conditions of Tendering except to the extent that their is no ambiguity.

2. VALIDITY PERIOD

   (a) Tenders shall remain valid for acceptance for 120 days from the closing date of tender. (Tender Closing Date).

   (b) A Tenderer must not withdraw, change (including by way of addition or qualification) or otherwise do anything which affects its tender before the expiration of 120 days after the Tender Closing Date.

3. TENDER DOCUMENTS

   Tenderers shall ensure that their Tender Documents are complete according to the instructions provided in this document and the Invitation to Offer.

3.1 Every Tenderer must:

   (a) Within three (3) days of receipt of the Tender Documents or any Notice to Tenderers, acknowledge receipt in writing;
CONDITIONS OF TENDERING

(b) Within five (5) days of receipt of the Tender Documents notify the Principal in writing whether or not the Tenderer intends submitting a tender.

3.2 Any amendments or additions provided to a Tenderer as an Addendum in accordance with these Conditions of Tendering shall form part of the Tender Documents.

3.3 Drawings issued, as part of the Tender Documents shall, unless otherwise expressly stated in the Tender Documents, be considered as approximate and for tendering purpose only and shall not be taken in any sense as working drawings.

4. VERBAL ADVICE

4.1 Tenderers agree that verbal advice or information given or obtained in respect of the Tender Documents shall not constitute a warranty or a representation to the Tenderer and shall not be binding on the Principal.

4.2 The Principal shall be bound only by advice or information supplied by the Principal in writing in the form of a Notice to Tenderers.

5. TENDERER TO ACQUAINT HIMSELF BEFORE TENDERING

5.1 Tender Document

(a) If the Tenderer requires further information to ensure that he has a clear and correct understanding of the nature and extent of the Contractor's Activities to be carried out under the Contract, he shall direct any enquiries to the Principal's Contract Administrator.

(b) Every Tenderer must by notice in writing to the Principal's Contract Administrator, advise the Principal of any error, discrepancy, ambiguity, incompleteness, omission, inquiry or other issue arising in connection with the Tender Documents immediately the Tenderer becomes aware of it.

5.2 Claims Not Allowed

(a) Every Tenderer must at its own cost and expense, and from its own sources satisfy itself as to all matters and things relevant to the performance of the Contract and the Tenderer's tender including without limitation:

i. The Tender Documents and any other information provided or made available by or on behalf of the Principal;

ii. All information relevant to the risk, contingencies and other circumstances having an effect on its tender and which is obtainable by the making of reasonable enquiries; and (the correctness and sufficiency of its tender and that its price covers the cost of complying with all the Contractor’s Activities under the Contract and all matters and things necessary for the due and proper performance and completion of the Supply.

(b) Claims for extra expenses or for an extension of time under the Contract or otherwise will not be allowed on any grounds that insufficient information was given in the Tender Documents or otherwise, or that the Tenderer was not familiar with the conditions prevailing at the site.

6. PRINCIPAL-SUPPLIED INFORMATION

6.1 Every Tenderer accepts that the Tenderer:

(a) Has not relied and will not rely upon, any Principal-Supplied Information for any purpose (including without limitation determining whether or not to lodge a tender, preparing its tender, entering into the Contract or performing the Contractor's Activities under the Contract);

(b) Has been or will be provided with Principal-Supplied Information only for the Tenderer's convenience and the Principal does not assume any responsibility, duty of care in respect of, give any warranty or guarantee or make any representations as to the Principal-Supplied Information (including its accuracy or adequacy);

(c) Shall have no claim against the Principal or any employee, agent or contractor of the Principal (whether in contract, tort (including negligence), equity, under statute or otherwise) from or in connection with the provision of the Principal-Supplied Information; and

(d) Without prejudice to paragraph (a), must satisfy itself as to and take into account any matter or thing disclosed by any Principal-Supplied Information relevant to the carrying out of the Contractor's Activities and completion of the Supply.

7. DEPARTURES FROM THE TENDER DOCUMENTS

(a) A non-conforming tender will not be considered unless a completed conforming tender is offered. There are certain mandatory requirements of the Supply with which Tenderers must comply. Subject to submitting conforming tenders for all Works, the Tenderer may submit Alternative Tenders.

(b) An Alternative Tender shall contain details of departures from any parts of the Tender Documents, including the Drawings (if applicable). These departures shall be listed in the relevant Schedule or in a separate section of the tender titled Departures from the Tender Documents. The departures shall be detailed in the same order as the relevant Tender Documents clauses. The list shall include separate prices to enable the tender to be adjusted to comply with the Tender Documents.
CONDITIONS OF TENDERING

(c) Details of any technical, monetary or other advantage or disadvantage to the Principal shall be given.

(d) The Tender shall be deemed to comply with the Tender Documents in every respect except for the departures listed in the Departures from the Tender Documents Schedule or in a separate section of the tender titled Departures from Tender Documents. Where there is an inconsistency (other than those properly listed as departures from Tender Documents) between a provision of the Tender Documents and a provision of the tender (including supporting documentation), the provision of the Tender Documents shall prevail. To the extent of the inconsistency, the provision of the tender shall have no force or effect.

(e) Adjustment to the Tender Price will not be accepted for any item omitted from the list of departures.

(f) A non-conforming tender, or portion thereof, if accepted, would be subject to all the other requirements of the Tender Documents, apart from the nominated and accepted items of non-conformity.
